

TPS HOUSING EXEMPLIFIES CUSTOMER SERVICE FOR INSURANCE RELOCATION INDUSTRY

Oceanside, August 1, 2009. Amy Kuhlman, CEO of Temporary Placement Solutions LLC.(TPS Housing) a nationwide housing placement and relocation specialist for the insurance industry, was recently tapped by Claims Magazine to provide her insight and experience on both the temporary housing industry and the importance of customer service during current economic conditions.

Claims Magazine is known as one of the insurance industry's leading publications covering the business of loss. In the August 2009 issue TPS Housing's CEO and founder Amy Kuhlman contributed the article entitled "Hospitality 101". This article is an in-depth step by step review of the importance of customer service; specifically for the homeowners insurance industry.

Kuhlman discusses how the importance of repeat business in today's challenging economy, as well as how specific standards enable any business to flourish.

Visit www.claimsmag.com for the complete article

About TPS Housing:

Temporary Placement Solutions is a national temporary housing provider for corporations and particularly the homeowners insurance industry. TPS Housing understands the urgency of the relocation coupled with cost efficiency. www.tpshousing.com

###

Contact: Amy Kuhlman, CEO and Founder - 877.291.3329, amy@tpshousing.com